LELAND AWARD 2011 A Prestigious Award Just For Guides

The Leland Award recognizes professionalism in the ranks of guides in British Columbia, Yukon, Nunavut and Northwest Territories. It was first established in 2000 in memory of Leland Bradford, a talented and skilful assistant guide who died in November 1998 at the young age of 22 years.

The award is presented to a deserving assistant guide at the Annual Convention of the Guide Outfitters Association of British Columbia (GOABC). The recipient is selected from among the nominations by GOABC's Board of Directors. The recipient will receive a special bronze sculpture from Rick Taylor of Wild World Studios and a $1,000.00 cheque from Hub International Insurance. The two runners-up also receive $750.00 each.

Who can be nominated?

Any assistant guide employed by a member of GOABC in 2010 is eligible for the Leland Award.

Who can submit nominations?

Any client of a GOABC member in 2010 can submit nominations for the Leland Award. The deadline for nominations is December 31, 2010.

What information is required?

Nominations should include the name of the guide outfitter employing the assistant guide, the name of the assistant guide, the dates and species of your hunt, and the reason you think this assistant guide deserves the award. GOABC looks for number of attributes in their selection of the recipient. This includes, but is not limited to, the assistant guide's professional attitude and treatment of clients, ethics and standards, and knowledge of the area and its wildlife.

Please include your name, address and contact information with your nomination.
